New Jersey-based Caesar's Pasta has been in the frozen pasta business for 42 years, but more recently began offering a wheat free and gluten free line in retailers like Whole Foods and Wegman's, according to press releases from the summer of 2009:

Caesar's gluten-free and wheat-free specialty pasta meals have received rave reviews from consumers for tasting exactly as "traditional Italian food should taste." Varieties include stuffed shells in marinara sauce, manicotti in marinara sauce, cheese lasagna and vegetable lasagna. Caesar's gluten-free meals include pasta noodles made with rice and its perfect texture is tender to the bite.
